Orchestra in Last Concert Tomorrow

Narberth Lad Soloist at Ardmore

On Sunday afternoon, May 24, at 3.15 P. M. the Main Line Orchestra will give the fourth and last concert of the season in the Ardmore Theatre.

An especially interesting program has been chosen by Conductor Vogel, centered around Master Fred Patten, violinist, as soloist. Philadelphia audiences which have heard Master Patten in his several appearances during the season, have agreed that his playing is remarkable for a 13-year-old boy. He will play two numbers with piano accompaniment.

One of the most interesting of the orchestral program will be a composition written by J. Murray Barbour, of Haverford, organist of Haverford College and a member of the faculty of the Temple School of Music. This is in the form of a prelude and double fugue. It was composed and entered in a scholarship competition in Rome two years ago. Mr. Barbour re-orchestrated it for the Main Line Orchestra.

Overture, Pique Dame, Suppe.
Prelude and Double Fugue in D, Barbour.
Romance from second violin concerto, Wieniawski.
Scherzo, Van Goens.
Master Fred Patten.
Intermission.
Liebestraume, Liszt.
Waltz, Artists' Life, Strauss.
Entr'acte Gavotte from Mignon, Thomas.
In the Mill, Gillet.
L'Arlesienne Suite No. 1., Bizet.
Prelude.
Adagio to Carillon.

TWO CHOIRS TO SING

An unusual local musical event will take place next Thursday evening at the Narberth School auditorium. At that time the combined choirs of All Saints' Church, Montgomery and Wynnewood avenues, and the Twelfth Street Methodist Church, of Philadelphia, will render "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast," by Coleridge-Taylor.

The two choirs form a chorus of fifty trained voices, including the excellently trained boy choir of All Saints'. It will be under the direction of David Spratt, of Narberth, who is choirmaster at both churches.

The choir of All Saints' is largely made up of Narberth residents—all the boys are from Narberth, and most of the adult members. Several prominent Philadelphia soloists will assist.

Tickets are on sale by all members of the choir. The proceeds of the concert are to defray the expenses of sending the boys to camp this summer.

A very successful recital of the forthcoming Narberth program was rendered by the two choirs in Philadelphia last Thursday night.

FUND RAISED

L. M. Alumni Complete $5000 Memorial Scholarship.

The Lower Merion High School Alumni Association has announced that it has completed the $5000 Memorial Scholarship Fund. About $1300 was turned over this week to Mr. Richard J. Hamilton, representing gifts from friends, as well as the proceeds from the various social functions of the year. The fund provides $250 annually to some graduate of the High School to be applied toward tuition at some college or university. The scholarship is at present held by Girard Rudick of Ardmore.

The Alumni Association is considering enlarging the scholarship fund to $20,000, which would enable a four year scholarship to be given to a member of each graduating class. This matter will be discussed at the annual June meeting, to be held at the High School on June 13.

At this meeting the Alumni will formally welcome the members of this year's graduating class to the association. There will be a speaker whose name will be announced later.

Many Local Boys Going to Camp

Students Sign up for C. M. T. C.

More than 400 young men have enrolled thus far for the Citizens' Military Training Camp to be held this summer at Camp Meade, Md. About half of the Philadelphia contingent who will be guests of Uncle Sam during their summer vacations will be high school students. A lively contest for the largest number of enrollments from any single school is being conducted.

Following are those from the Main Line whose applications have been accepted:

Francis J. Kelly, Jr., Merion, William Penn Charter; Edward P. Jacobs, Narberth, Lower Merion High; Robert L. Dohard, Narberth, Lower Merion High; Frederic A. Egmore, Jr., Narberth, Lower Merion High; Raymond H. Rudrauff, Narberth, Lower Merion High; Charles V. Clegg, Narberth, Lower Merion High; Charles M. Henry, Narberth, Lower Merion High; David J. Speck, Narberth, Lower Merion High; Robert L. Leitch, Narberth, Lower Merion High; Robert B. Miller, Gladwyn, Lower Merion High; John A. Doran, Gladwyn, Lower Merion High; Albert P. Kohlhas, Jr., Ardmore, Lower Merion High; Van S. Jackson, Bala-Cynwyd, Lower Merion High; John P. Jones, Bala-Cynwyd, Lower Merion High; Wendell B. Stewart, Bala-Cynwyd, Lower Merion High; Hector M. Warde, Bala-Cynwyd, Lower Merion High; Warren F. Drumm, Bala-Cynwyd, Lower Merion High.

LUNCHEON TO NEW VOTERS

Hon. Florence E. Allen, of Ohio, to Speak.

In conformity with the request of the national chairman of the League of Women Voters that some activity be planned in each State for the "new voters" section before the close Pennsylvania State league are holding a luncheon on Friday, June 5, at 1 o'clock P. M., in the north garden of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel.

This is an effort to follow up the departure in the league as established at the recent national convention, when 70 young women representing 35 colleges and 11 States attended the sessions as a delegate body.

The Narberth branch of the League of Women Voters will have as their guests several "new voters" from Narberth.

The luncheon is also open to all members, and the local chairman has made the usual reservations, and those desiring tickets will kindly phone Narberth 1638-M promptly. Tickets, $2.

This is an excellent opportunity to hear Judge Allen and at the same time give encouragement to this enthusiastic group of young women who are the future citizens.

The Narberth League of Women Voters has discontinued its meetings for the summer, but will resume its activities in the early fall; concentrating on getting out the vote, its membership drive and a candidates' meeting before the primaries.

Attended League Conference.

Mrs. A. B. Ross, Mrs. Carroll Downes, Mrs. Wistar DuMarais, Mrs. E. C. Batchelor and Mrs. C. P. Fowler attended the five county conferences recently held at "Whitford," the home of Miss Martha Thomas, State legislator and vice chairman of the State organization. All delegates were guests for luncheon.

Helps Lay Cornerstone.

Mr. Cabrey is chairman of the Rosemont Association, which is back of the recently-formed college. In his speech he lauded the work of Cornelia Connelly, who founded the Sisters of the Holy Child. The new dormitory is named in her honor.

Several hundred persons attended the ceremonies which were followed by refreshments served on the grounds of the college.

Dedication Program is Announced

Lutheran Church to Open Tomorrow

It will be a big day in Narberth's history when the new Lutheran Church, on the corner of Woodbine and Narberth avenues, will be dedicated.

This will take place tomorrow, the 24th of May, at 3 in the afternoon.

There will be services in the morning at 11, at which time the Rev. J. W. Singmaster, D. D., president of the Theological Seminary, Gettysburg, Pa., will preach the sermon. A number of new members will be received. There will be an anthem by the choir.

In the afternoon at 3 o'clock the dedicatory sermon will be preached by Rev. I. Chantry Hoffman, D. D., general secretary of the Board of Home Missions in America. An offering will be received toward the meeting of the financial demands upon the church at this time.

Then will follow the dedicating services in which the pastor, assisted by other ministers, and with responses by the congregation, will solemnly set apart the new and beautiful building to the worship of almighty God.

In the evening at 7.45 there will be interesting services at which Dr. Nathan R. Melhorn, editor of the "Lutheran," Philadelphia, Pa., and Rev. S. D. Daugherty, D. D., superintendent of missions for East Pennsylvania Synod, will be the speakers.

Vocal and instrumental music will grace the occasion and this meeting will close the services in this day of rejoicing over the completion and dedication of their new church by the Lutheran congregation of Narberth.

On Tuesday evening there will be a community service at which Rev. A. C. Kanzinger, of Ardmore, will speak, and greetings will be brought by local pastors.

On Wednesday evening the meeting will be under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society of the Lutheran Church. Mrs. A. V. Pohlman, of Philadelphia, will speak and be followed by others. Missionary hymns will be sung.

On Thursday evening there will be a social meeting which will end the services. Rev. Chamberlain, of Philadelphia, will speak. Music will be rendered and refreshments served. A good time is promised to all of these meetings. The public is invited.

ROBERTSON, PENN TRACK COACH, ADDRESSES HI-Y

Thursday evening at the Hi-Y Club banquet in the Ardmore Y. M. C. A., Lawton Robertson, Pennsylvania University track coach and generally recognized as the best authority on track affairs of the United States, spoke on the outlook of the coming intercollegiate and also on the last Olympic games. Mr. Robertson was head coach of the United States Olympic track team which competed successfully for world honors, at Paris, in 1924. After his speech he answered many questions, chiefly on track, that have been the cause of dispute at the high school.

Many new members were welcomed into the club at the last meeting, among them being Fred Ball, Charles Campbell, Fred Dautle, Paul Derham, Anthony Felix, Derry Fuller, Norman Knipe, Hays, Litchfield and Gibson.

The Hi-Y convention to be held at the Central Y. M. C. A. Saturday, May 23d, is a much-discussed and looked-forward-to event. The convention will begin in the morning with several athletic matches followed by a swim, after which the annual banquet will take place. At the banquet the presidents of each chapter of the local Hi-Y clubs will make short speeches on the work done by their respective chapters. Prominent speakers and leaders of athletic and campus activities of the university will next address the Hi-Y men on various interesting topics.

Residents Inspected New Bank

Officers and Directors Hosts Saturday

On last Saturday afternoon and evening, the public had their first view of the new Narberth National Bank. They had of course watched the construction of the building from the time the first foundation stone was set, but on Saturday they viewed the interior of the bank, and many were the compliments on the fine appearance of the interior. The officers and directors helped Mr. J. W. McCrery, the cashier and his assistant, Mr. Shoemaker, explain about the vault and the various up-to-date machines which make banking much simpler than in days gone by. The bank screen is of mahogany and designed along Colonial lines, plain, but of a very pleasing appearance and the little spinet desks and Windsor chairs add a quaint and delightful touch. The lighting in the day time comes through the windows along Haverford avenue, which are to have Venetian blinds, which will mellow the sunlight and add another touch of olden times to the interior.

In the evening when the electric lights are turned on, the effect is that of day, as the lights have been so well distributed that they light up every corner.

The opening was a complete success as the many residents of Narberth can vouch for, as they walked around the flower-decked quarters and chatted with their neighbors. The flowers stood in tall baskets in front of the bank screen and were the expressions of good-will sent in by friends. One of the prettiest baskets came from the Merion Title and Trust Company, who have maintained a branch in Narberth for a number of years and thus welcomed their new neighbor, the Narberth National Bank.

The offices on the second floor of the bank building were also much admired as they are about as complete as those located in the large office buildings in Philadelphia and no doubt will soon be occupied by various business concerns.

The people of Narberth gave the new bank a very hearty welcome and have been showing a decided interest ever since the opening, in arranging for their checking accounts, opening savings accounts and renting safety deposit boxes.

Narberth is to be congratulated in this latest community activity and the best wishes of the entire town as shown on its opening day will surely make the project the complete success it deserves.

LONDONER LECTURES

Under the auspices of the First Church of Christ Scientist, of Ardmore, Pa., John W. Doorly, C. S. B., delivered a lecture Friday evening, May 15, at the Masonic Hall entitled "Christian Science—The Science of the Unity of God and His Creation." Mr. Doorly is a member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ Scientist in Boston, Mass.

Mr. Doorly, in the course of his lecture, explained how the right understanding of God, of man and of the universe, means also the right idea of health, of holiness, of peace, of happiness and of all that expresses and reveals God. Such a thinker must be more spiritual. He must be less sickly and more healthy; less subject to mortal laws of chance and accident and more and more under the divine laws of infinite good.

St. Margaret's Wins.

The baseball team of the St. Margaret's Boys' Club defeated the Presbyterian team Thursday night by the score of 12 to 2. The game was played on the playground field.

Games are played every Tuesday and Thursday evening. The next big game of the St. Margaret's aggregation will be on Tuesday, June 2, when the redoubtable Post Office nine will be tackled.

THE MYSTERIOUS PROPRIETOR

Tuesday, in the Federal Court in Philadelphia, there was heard a liquor case, which followed in due course the arrest several weeks ago of John T. Odell, alleged proprietor of the General Wayne Inn.

Various prohibition agents testified that they had purchased cocktails of high voltage from a waiter; it seemed clear that pre-Volstead liquor had flowed.

And then John R. K. Scott, attorney for the defendant, asked calmly: "But who is the proprietor of the General Wayne Inn?"

"Why, John Odell, of course," answered witnesses.

"Are you sure?" went on Mr. Scott.

"Everybody knows he is," was the reply.

"Yes, but that is mere hearsay, and is not evidence," said the lawyer.

He won his point and the trial was held over. In the meantime various ambitious prohibition sleuths are trying to determine just who is the proprietor of the General Wayne.

BOROUGH BASEBALL

As an indication of the widespread community interest in our local baseball endeavors, Ralph Dunn, the alert and aggressive president of the Narberth Civic Association, has announced that he will donate a silver loving cup to the player who achieves the best batting average for the season, in not less than 60 per cent. of the Main Line League games. A good ball club is a distinct asset to any American town, and Mr. Dunn's gift is calculated to impress that fact home.

Those citizens who wish to register their support of the team, but who do not have many opportunities to witness the games, can acclaim their interest by subscribing to a $5 season ticket, through Charles E. Harnden, the club treasurer. The sale of these tickets affords a great part of the club's income and furnishes the nucleus of the purse which is distributed among the players at the season's end. It is also pointed out that the possession of such tickets will make the usual contribution at the field unnecessary, unless the disposition is there to give and give again, in which case you can be sure the collectors won't call a cop to stop you. Those who don't buy the tickets should make sure to drop their little quarters and half-dollars in the hat as it is passed around, as the expenses are heavier than most folks think, and every little bit helps a lot.

Word comes that the grass-cutting on the field will henceforth be done by the Playground Board and that is an additional and gratifying evidence of borough brotherhood. It is said that the final plans for our great outdoor centre put the ball field at the Wynnewood avenue end, and it is expected that we will see a finished project before the summer wanes. All hail to the splendid spirit and service of this effective and industrial board.

It is not good to learn that Epper Yowell and Johnny Dickie are leaving these parts to play professional ball elsewhere, but merit will out and the big world clamors for the kind of talent Narberth develops. The newcomers on the team are displaying fine form and there is little doubt the borough's standard will fly over again on the championship meadow when the robins southward fly.

Attired in a nice, new, natty Bala-Cynwyd suit, Fred Walzer evidenced his great good will by looking in on the Narberth-Ardmore game last Saturday. When the communities hereabouts want to know how a thing is done they must come our way to learn, and here's hoping that Fred will land his team a good second in the race now underway. It's a pity we can't wish him first place, but that wouldn't do at all, at all.

Narberth will play in two leagues this season, the regular Main Line games, but the plan could not be light League games on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. It was hoped that all the Main Line Clubs could participate in the twilight games, but the plan could not be worked out, and a separate league was formed, which includes the Main Line Clubs in this vicinity, the Autocar Club of Ardmore, and the Preston Club, of Bryn Mawr. Full details of these games will be published later.

County Federation in Session

Reports From Clubs a Feature of Meeting

A review of the accomplishments of the Montgomery Federation of Women's Club for the past year and a plea for still greater activity next season was made by Mrs. Richard J. Hamilton, Ardmore president, at the annual meeting of the Federation in Royersford, Thursday. Women from all parts of the county attended the meeting.

Mrs. Hamilton, in her address, stressed the desirability of a record attendance at the State Federation meeting in Wilkes-Barre next October, and among the outstanding achievements of the Montgomery organization for the past year she mentioned the Montgomery County Club Woman, of which Mrs. John B. Brooks, of Narberth, is editor.

"In January, our first bulletin was issued and christened, 'The Montgomery County Clubwoman,'" said Mrs. Hamilton. "It was modest in size, but the present number shows that it is developing. It was a chairman's number, each chairman being allowed 100 words in which to put forth her winter's program to the clubs. I was proud to find the great amount of real work they condensed into those few words. They not only wrote their message, but have called their committees together for conference and discussion; a very necessary procedure if the county is to continue to grow.

"Will the presidents plan to have a larger representation at the State meeting, to be held in Wilkes-Barre in October? Not only the accredited delegates, but every chairman, and as many other members as possible. This is most important, as it is the time when they will receive their inspiration and outline of work for the winter 1925-26.

"Will you make this a 50 per cent. club talent year, permitting every one of your members the privilege of developing herself into a speaker and leader? She will find it not only a privilege, but a great pleasure. Too few women are being developed for the future good of the clubs.

"Let us follow out the suggestion made by Mrs. John D. Sherman in her letter. It was indeed a great honor to have her give us this personal message. I heard her say recently, 'our clubs are city-top heavy.' We need the country woman for what she can give us in order to keep the work balanced. So let us organize a new club in every community of the county that cannot be reached by the existing clubs. If you do not find a club, found a club."

A feature of the meeting was the naming in the Club Woman by the presidents of the various clubs of the outstanding achievements of their respective organizations.

Women's Community Club of Narberth, Mrs. Harry C. Jacobs, President.

"Does the general interest of your club ever wane? If so, do as we did. We gave a large bazaar in which every member of the club took part. There were entertaining features, games, dinner, pretty and useful articles for sale. It not only replenished our treasury, but rejuvenated the whole club."

To Sell Poppies.

The American Legion Auxiliary, assisted by the Narberth Girl Scouts, will conduct their annual poppy sale Saturday, May 23.

Let every citizen, man, woman and child, wear a poppy on Memorial Day, May 30, 1925, a token of loving remembrance of life freely given for the ideals we cherish.

The proceeds are to be used for child welfare.

Festival Coming.

A strawberry festival is being planned at the new Lutheran Church, Friday evening, June 19. Tickets will be 35 cents.

A RECORD

The Girl Scout Troop of Narberth have hun up a record the past year, which will be something for other troops to shoot at for some time. Our troop here in Narberth is No. 8, District 8, the District being composed of troops of the Main Line, Gladwyn and Cynwyd. Narberth Troop has 67 girls with Mrs. Ruth Haws Nash, as captain and Marian H. Cook and Cynthia Metzger as lieutenants.

There has been close to 100 per cent. attendance at the weekly meetings of the troop during the past year. At the Court of Awards, held last Saturday in Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, 839 merit badges were given to worthy Scouts, 212 of these were captured by the Main Line District and of these 157 by Troop No. 8 of Narberth. This is said to be the largest number of merit badges ever given to a troop of Girl Scouts at one time. The next highest number received this year was 57 by a Philadelphia Troop. Narberth leading by an even 100. There were three Scouts who received ten merit badges each, and two of these were Narberth girls. Cynthia Metzger and Kathryn Augst.

The Narberth Troop has advanced greatly during the past year, and anyone who stops in the Y. M. C. A. building on a Tuesday evening during one of the meetings, or who was fortunate enough to have been in the Baptist Church last Sunday morning to see our 65 Scouts in uniform, will understand why Narberth is justly proud of its local organization.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor of Our Town:
A friend of mine visiting the writer's home recently after dark asked a question that I was unable to answer, viz.—"What is the Specific Duty of a Sidewalk?"

Not getting the point, I asked for a further explanation, to which my visitor replied:

I have had very many pleasant trips to your home in the past few years, but my trip tonight was full of Alpine guide duty.

My first experience was passing the corner of Haverford and Narberth avenues. The lighting at this point was very poor caused by a pile of lumber adjacent to the sidewalk casting a shadow across the walk, but, happy to say, I came by this chasm with flying colors.

The next location, Windsor and Hampden avenues, gave me the thrill of my life, also a very vivid description of going through a place in Willow Grove I think they call the crazy house. Why any law-abiding citizen of any borough or municipality tolerates such abuse to the public welfare is more than I can fathom.

I have made inquiries and find that on a rainy day the conditions at this point are horrible. The gutters are entirely blocked up with building material; in fact, this material extends to very near the other side of the street.

If the sidewalk and street are to be entirely under the jurisdiction of the builder, why not rope off the avenues he cares to occupy and make citizens of the borough walk a couple of blocks out of their road to get home?

My friend is evidently not acquainted with the lax methods used in our borough. I was notified a few years back to repair a small crack in my curbing or the borough would complete the job and bill the costs to me.

Verily I say to those who send these notices to look around today and see the number of gross violators of this ordinance.

Why pick on one and allow others to go unmolested?

DAHLIAS

Late May is the time for planting dahlias, either green plants or tubers. The tubers are probably the safest for the amateur, but the best flowers are had from the green plant and a good clump of tubers can be dug up in the fall from a green plant—provided, however, that the grower knew his business and properly rooted the cutting.

One important point in growing dahlias is to plant them in soil that is not too rich. Rich soil will force the plant to a mass of foliage at the expense of bloom later. Ordinary garden soil—the lighter and looser the better—suits their requirements in the early stages. If you want to provide food for a few months later take your bone-meal and sift it through a piece of fly-screen and use the coarse bone in the soil about the tuber. The fine bone can be used for annuals or vegetables or can be saved to use on the dahlia plants when they are in bud.

To plant either tubers or green plants, dig a hole a foot or more deep to loosen up the soil; mix the coarse bone in if you choose; fill the soil back and then scoop a hole about four inches deep; set the tuber on its side—in a horizontal position—with the eye pointing up; then depress the lower end of the tuber and pack the soil firmly about this end; leave the eye end loose; cover the tuber till the soil is about an inch below the surrounding level, and water—just enough water to moisten the soil. If a green plant is used, just set it to the depth it was planted in the pot, moisten slightly and shade the plant for a few days until the roots have caught and the plant seems to be growing.

Further notes on the care of the dahlia will appear in later issues.

Spray the roses for aphids, using nicotine preparations. It is possibly not too late to disbud the peonies; leave the centre bud and remove the side buds. Peonies can stand lots of water from now until they have finished blooming.

Some fine bone will be appreciated by the delphiniums, as will plenty of water about their roots—not on the foliage. Watch for signs of black rot on the delphiniums just when they are about to bud. This is a root-fungus disease and can be cured by cutting off the blackened stems and applying a sulphur fungicide to the roots of the plants.

NATIONAL PEONY SHOW IN PHILADELPHIA

June 5, 6 and 7
The Pennsylvania Horticultural Society, with the American Peony Society, will hold a combined flower show in Memorial Hall, Fairmount Park, on the above dates. A rare opportunity to see the country's best in peonies, roses, delphiniums, model gardens, miniature gardens and beauty at its best.

NARBERTH WINS AGAIN

Takes K. of C. in Camp in League Game.

Bill Crowell's Narberth Baseball Team won another game in the Main Line League by taking Joe Cullinan's Ardmore K. of C.'s in hand, 8-4, last Saturday.

Owing to the fact that Ardmore's grounds were not in shape for last Saturday's game they played on the Narberth field, and returned to Ardmore on the short end of the scoring.

Bill Crowell used Townsend on the mound for Narberth and he pitched air tight ball except for two innings when two runs each were made. Ardmore could not do a thing with Charlie's hooks. C. Humphries in right field helped his team mates with three wonderful catches. Clarence must have had roller skates on to cover so much ground. Due to the fact that Odiorne and G. Fleck, regular catchers, are both injured, H. Humphries took the receiving end and did good work. J. Dickie was moved over to the hot corner and young Gilfillan, who plays for Lower Merion, played second base.

Ardmore was compelled to use three pitchers to enable them to keep up the pace. Bill Rogers lasted six innings and Jack Murray only stayed one. Then Bill Kane (who pitched a game for Narberth last year against Bala-Cynwyd) finished the game, but they all looked alike to the champions of last year.

Dickie, Davis and Townsend each received two safe hits. Jack Jefferies batted for Gilfillan in the ninth and his single drove in V. Fleck and H. Humphries. J. Sinclair and Joe Cullinan were the big stickers for Ardmore, getting two safeties each. Key's sacrifice fly in the eighth tied the score when Ardmore pulled one run ahead of Narberth.

Mr. Ralph S. Dunne, of 318 Grayling avenue, has purchased a house on Shirley road now under construction by Thos. A. Kerrigan & Sons. It is unlikely that he will proceed with the construction of a house on Anthwyn Farms as he had planned.

GIRL SCOUT WINS LIFE-SAVING CROSS

Betty White, of Ardmore, Rescued Man in Surf at Ocean City.

The silver cross for life saving, the most prized Girl Scout award, was presented to Betty White, 15, of Ardmore, at the Girl Scout Court of Awards held Saturday at Drexel Institute. Troops from Cynwyd, Narberth, Ardmore and other Main Line towns attended.

Hundreds of trim, khaki-clad sister scouts and many guests applauded this and other awards made during the afternoon. More than 800 merit distinctions of various sorts were awarded. A song contest of scout districts was also a feature of the program.

Miss White saved the life of an elderly man at Ocean City on August 31 last by an act of heroism involving great risk to herself.

In an undertow so heavy that she could not swim with the drowning man to the beach, the young girl sank herself, obtaining a footing in the sand, and passed the man at arm's length over her head in the direction of the shallow water until both could stand with safety. She is a member of Troop 44 of the Women's Club of Ardmore.

This award, as well as the five medals of merit, were kept secret until the name of the recipient was called solemnly from the platform. Miss White blushed with surprise, hesitated a moment, and then came forward for her commendation.

Of the 839 awards of merit made, laundry was the chief accomplishment in which the girls had attained proficiency. Cooking came next on the list. The badges of merit were awarded as follows: Laundresses, 94; needlewomen, 63; citizens, 56; hostesses, 52; home nurses, 43; first aid, 41; craftswomen, 38; economists, 30; musicians, 25; dressmakers, 23; artists, 14; children's nurses, 13; handiwomen, 11; pathfinders, 10; health guardians, 9; business women, 7; pioneers, 6; milliners, 5; photographers, 5; star-gazers, 5; scholarships, 5; dancers, 4; athletes, 3 swimmers, 2; zoologists, 2.

Ten badges each were won by Scout Kathryn Aungst, and Scout Cynthia Metzger, Troop 8, District 8, Narberth, and Lieutenant Dorothy Pearlman, Troop 89, District 5, Narberth's Troop 8, received the greatest number of badges, capturing 157.

ECONOMIES IN TELEPHONE OPERATION

THE system of this company has grown from two telephones to nearly a million in Pennsylvania in less than fifty years.

Such growth of a necessary service, constantly increasing in scope and efficiency, is not surprising. But there's an element in it that is.

The single telephone is not a self-sufficient unit. It must be tied to every other one in the community, and beyond.

A growth of a hundred telephones, or a thousand, means a disproportionate growth in many elements of the telephone plant, and similarly in the volume and complexity of the interconnecting equipment and operation.

It has more than once been said that the successful conduct of a telephone business can be continued "only so long as two plus two can be made to equal something less than four."

And it is a fact that the otherwise natural consequences of this great growth would long ago have swamped the service, placing it far beyond the average reach, had it not been for constant economy coming from invention, development, increased efficiencies and capacities, effective short-cuts—altogether, the scientific improvement of the telephone equipment and its operation in the direction of economy.

COTTER'S MARKET

MEMBER RETAIL GROCERS' ASSOCIATION

WHAT AN ASSOCIATION STANDS FOR.—The modern Retail Merchants' Association seeks to build the business fraternity into a close bond of unity in order that individual ideas may be brought into shape for collective action. In other words, it is a brotherhood of competitive merchants brought into being for friendly action. It seeks to build up a good community in order that there may be good business. It encourages constructive competition, not ruinous, contentious strife.

It aims to protect the merchant from the inroads of the professional debt dodger in common justice to those who pay their bills. Through a good credit rating system it aims to protect not only the merchant, but the consumer against those who do not regard credit as a privilege not to be abused. In connection with like associations in other localities it works to uphold a higher standard of trade ethics, to abolish trade abuses, to prevent legislation inimical to the merchant. It encourages proper hours of business. It discourages keeping open for business on the Sabbath day. It encourages a half holiday during the summer months. It encourages home buying by inducing merchants to so conduct their stores as to be worthy of it and to command it not as a divine right, but as a deserved recognition of honest, square-dealing merchandising.

It is a good business policeman, directs trade toward the merchant. It protects the home merchant against the inroads of the peddler and transient merchant by seeing to it that they pay a proper license fee.

It helps every worthwhile community cause. It believes in town advertising. It helps to bring new enterprises into the city or town. It is a town-boosting institution, which is always a first step toward building.

Its meetings are open forums for the discussion not of selfish ideas, but of those which stand for town expansion, better merchandising and the incentive to become better merchants.

HEATHIZED SWEET CREAM BUTTER

In a recent comparison of high grade butters by a Dairy Products Laboratory of this city, Heathized Sweet Cream Butter was scored 94, while we only claim 92. In bacteria content the Heathized Sweet Cream Butter showed ninety per cent. less than the next average. It was pronounced a perfect butter. That is why it is sweet and remains sweet.

BOOK REVIEWS

From this month's Library list have been selected for review the following worthwhile books:

"The Story of Wilbur the Hat," is an allegorical satire by Henrick Willem van Loon, author of "The Story of Mankind." The book is made up something like a child's story book, but it is a book for grown-ups, the text on one page and on the opposite page an illustration in colors. The drawings, too, are by Mr. van Loon. "Wilbur the Hat" came from Boston, and had a large opinion of himself.

Zeus, hearing Wilbur bragging, had him blown into another world—"the world that never was." Here he met Cedric, the Cricket, who tries to explain to Wilbur the sights of that world, but without much success. While the reader will find much to chuckle over, he will also find much to think about. It is safe to venture the opinion that anyone who reads it will recommend it to his friends.

"A Home of Your Own," is a first-class textbook on matrimony and home making. Mrs. Della Thompson Lutes, the author, starts with her own childhood when she and her playmates played the game called "a home of yer own," and tells how they swept and cooked and made believe that they were grown-up. And when she learned from real life how best to manage a real home she decided to pass her knowledge to others and the result is a fascinating book, full not only of practical advice on budgets, food and furnishings, but of lovely illustrations of furnished rooms that will be of interest to the girl filling her hope chest, to the girl just beginning to make use of her bridal gifts and to the seasoned housekeeper who is always looking for new ideas to help her in her housekeeping and home making.

"These United States" is a book for Americans. It is a collection of articles written by different authors on the different States of the Union. It is a present day history with some "looking backward" and some "looking forward." The whole comprises two volumes of entertaining and instructive reading. Sinclair Lewis, Willa Cather, Ernest Gruening, Theodore Dreiser, Ralph D. Paine and others equally well-known have contributed to the making of this unique history of each State of the United States.

"Ten Years After," by Philip Gibbs, is a clear and thoughtful discussion of conditions in Europe and America ten years after the world war began. Mr. Gibbs has divided the book into four parts. The first part tells of the conditions of the countries before war was declared and during the war. The second part is about the Peace Treaty, and its great uncertainty. The third is of the perils through which all the countries are now passing, and the fourth is called "The Hope Ahead," in which ways and means for a permanent peace among nations are carefully thought out. It is a valuable book to read, first as a "reminder," as the author has called the subtitle, and second, to help one form a better understanding of the needs of rational thinking if another war is to be averted.

"The House Without a Key," is a story of murder and many mysteries. It is by Earl Derr Biggers, author of "The Seven Keys to Baldpate," which made such a hit several years ago. Here the hunt centers around a cigarette butt, a brooch, a man who has lost his false teeth, a watch with the numeral "2" almost obliterated. Pretty nearly everyone is suspected at some time or other, and one is kept guessing to the very end.

Garden Day

In Narberth Next Saturday

Flower Show in Elm Hall

Memorial day, May 30, in the afternoon, from 3 to 5, and in the evening, from 7 to 9, the flowers from Narberth's gardens will be on display. Some will show blue ribbons, some red ribbons and some white ribbons, but those who are interested in flowers or in the garden—and what suburbanite is not—will get together and learn much from each other.

The Children's Classes should be particularly interesting and much competition is expected for the cash prizes of $3.00 and $2.00 as well as the ribbon and the honor of being able to arrange a good looking vase or basket of garden flowers.

If you come as an exhibitor to see what you won or just to see the possibilities of your own hardy garden or if you come just out of curiosity, the idea is—to be there.

This little Flower Show is all our own, just your flowers and your neighbor's, quantity is what makes it a success. There is a place on the schedule for everything from the garden.
